“ I told Mom about Uncle Norm's passing and she was very quiet for a while. Then we talked about the good memories. Cousin Sherry had sent an early photo to Mom's hospice room just about a week earlier. In it, Uncle Bob, a very young Norm and G-pa Norm were standing in the yard posing by a clothesline. That served as a launching platform for the conversation. Kate Bowman, grief counselor at C. Cook Hospice, was sitting listening to our chin-wag and came away impressed at our family. I attended Norm and Glo's wedding with Mom and Dad as a newly minted 12 year-old member of the Stewart-Yoeckel Tribe. It is my privilege to know and be known be all of you.
