

Laura Lynn Parrish

July 12, 1930 - October 21, 2021

Laura Lynn Parrish passed away October 21, 2021, at her home in Aubrey, TX with her children by her side.

She was born in Childress, TX to MA and Preston Mills. After high school she attended Hardin Simmons University in Abilene, TX. From college she moved to Dallas, TX where she worked for the Federal Reserve Bank for several years. She met the love of her life, Gay Parrish, and they were married in 1952. After starting their family, she decided to take a break from her career to raise their two children. In 1987, she returned to the workforce. She started her own company designing and manufacturing children's and infant bedding. Her designs were sold across the United States and Canada. And in 2010 she retired at the age of 80.

Laura is survived by her son, Preston Parrish; daughter, Sheree McCabe and husband Michael. She is also survived by a large extended family of nieces and nephews: David and Patti Canup, Paul and Vicki Canup, Johnny and Ginger White, Ricki Lynn and Joette Phipps, Jim and Dorothy Noack, Donny Parrish, Carol Mills and their children and grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and her brother, Joe Mills.

A Celebration of Life will be held at Slay Memorial Funeral Home in Aubrey, on Monday, November 1, 2021, at 11:00am. On-line condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

“ I had such a great time working with Laura and my mom, Arlene at Canton in their booth. Always busy and always fun! Gonna miss both of these ladies, but they are enjoying each other and so many that preceded them. I'm sure my Mom said, It took you long enough!! Welcome home! Love and blessings to a great family. ”
