“ The Measure of a Man

Talented: Could weld, paint commercially, build houses

Educated: 12 college credits toward certification for Nursing Home Administration

Christian: Helped start Nondenominational church

Family: Had four children of his own, helped raise my two girls, and adopted a son

Appearance: Never a hair out of place, boots and shoes always polished to a shine,

Always wore a suit and tie to church and special events, shirttail always tucked in without a wrinkle

Travel: From Florida to New York, New Mexico to Utah and

Wyoming; other countries,

Israel and Jordan

Attention to details: Lawn always mowed, garage and shop always neat and orderly, vehicles clean and full of gas.

Not everything, but you get the idea. A life well lived...

Sue Herrington, you nailed it. A good man, in a world of bad men.

Lawerence was a great person to work with. You could always go to him with a question or for help, and he knew a lot. After retirement we kept in touch and I always enjoyed talking to him. He will be missed by all who knew him.

Not only did i work with Lawrence and his wife Leslie at DSSLC, but occasionally we would run into each other at this Fish place in Tioga and we would talk while we enjoyed our meal. My heart and prayers go out to Leslie and the rest of the family. He was a good man. RIP Lawrence

I did not know him very well at all, but I know Leslie and I know because she loved him, he was a very special man. And I could see he made her happy. The few times I saw him he said very little he just sat calmy there and let Leslie and I do our family thing and talk of old times and those who had gone on, that alone showed his patience. Fred, Denise and the rest of our family are praying for you my sweet cousin.
