“ I wasn't much of a fishing buddy seeing as I didn't like baiting the hooks, but I will forever miss our baseball talks. I always looked forward to seeing you especially during the holidays when baseball season was on a break. We would talk about how that Ranger pitching needed help, and we'd usually agree on who the Rangers should sign and get rid of. And boy when they got good here recently we thought they were on to something. Of all the times we went out on the boat, went fishing, I'll miss these talks with you the most Granddad! Daja Le

“ Daddy, We miss you so very much already. There was no greater love or honor that we your children: Sharon, Sandra, and Lee Roy, Jr. could have but to have you as a Dad and to be by your side till the end. We love you so very much, you were always there for us and we were there for you, always a family, no matter who or what. We will miss our beautiful get-to-gathers at the farm. Thank you, Daddy, Granddad, and Great-granddad, We love you
