

Lemmon Jean Browne

June 10, 1957 - May 25, 2026

Lemmon Jean Browne was born June 10, 1957, to Ernest and Essie lee (Davis) Brown in Orange Lake, FL.

Lemmon Jean was the oldest of eight children and was raised in Peoria, IL, where she attended Irving Grade School and went on trips to Washington D.C. and elsewhere. She graduated from Woodruff High School in 1976 where she participated in the Upward Bound Program. She went on to attend Illinois Central College in East Peoria and Eureka College in Eureka, IL. Lemmon Jean was mostly employed in retail and lived a vibrant life until becoming mentally challenged in 1991. As an adult, Lemmon Jean accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and was baptized in the Heavens View Church in Peoria, IL. She moved to Texas in August 2021 with her mother, Essie, and sister, Sundra Brown.

Lemmon Jean lost her battle with stage four cancer in the early morning hours, Monday, May 25, 2026, at the Prairie Estates Nursing Home in Frisco, TX. She has gone on to her eternal home in Heaven and is now free and in peace from mental illness and cancer. Lemmon's loving nature, sweet smile, and caring heart were gifts to all who knew her. The loss of her presence leaves an emptiness that words cannot describe, and she will be deeply missed every day.

She is preceded in death by her father, Ernest Brown, sister, Ramona Brown, and brother, Malachi Brown.

Those left to cherish Lemmon Jean's memory are mother, Essie Brown of Aubrey, TX; two sisters, Sundra Brown of Aubrey, TX, and Daphne Brown of Minneapolis, MN; three brothers, Ernest Brown of Minneapolis, MN, Geroge Brown and wife, Janice of Minneapolis, MN, Russell Brown of Peoria, IL; aunt, Mary Marks of Nashville, TN; nephew, Marshall Brown and a host of other nephews, nieces, and cousins.

Lemmon Jean's memory will remain forever in our hearts.
