“ Well you slipped away from us! You did a great job taking care of the kids making sure they had what they needed and supporting them as they played in the band. You always made sure the celebrations were filled with joy and decorations at Christmas, Halloween, and Easter. I regret we did not have more time to spend laughing ,joking and maybe drinking a beer or two. You will walk with the Lord now and we will all see you in our own time. God Bless you Leroy as you watch down on he rest of us. We will miss your laugh and sense of humor.
