“ Julie, Dori, Alra, Blake, Sam, my heart aches for you. May God comfort you.

Leroy, WTH? I started to text you last night to tell you something. Then it hit me, you're not there anymore. Who is going to talk to me on these late nights and early mornings? You always made me laugh with your FYD? I miss you terribly but God needed you more. I know he has a special place for you and he knows how much you loved him. But you left a huge hole on this earth. I love you.

Leroy you had a heart as big as the Grand Canyon. Your smile and laughter was so contagious. You could fix any auto that had a problem and other things as well. You loved telling jokes. You have a ton of friends who are going to miss you big time but not as much as your family and myself. My heart is broken into a million pieces BUT God was in need of you and called you Home early. I love you darling and I'll still talk to you but it will be different than before. Watch over all of us to keep us safe. Love always.

Leroy you are one of my oldest friends and I still can't believe you are gone. I'm so thankful we got to spend my last few days in Texas together. I will forever cherish all memories we shared together. You will always be in my heart now and forever.

Leroy and I had quite a few conversations on our back porch and he surprised me a few times by calling me just to talk. He had a good heart and loved my daughter very much of which I am grateful. Dori and Alra, I have been praying for Julie and for the both of you every day, I know how much it must hurt. Thank- you for helping and loving Julie and the kids and being there for them. I would be there if I could. Rest in Gods arms Leroy.
