“ Our hearts are saddened that you are no longer here on earth with us! The time you did spend on earth you had a very welcoming heart! Family was important to you and spending as much time as you could with all of your friends and family was just as important to you as well. We know the love you had for your two daughters will always stay in their hearts forever. The love for your grandchildren, you see it in their eyes every time they were around you. The memories that our family shared with you and your family will always stay in our hearts forever!

“ I've only known Lisa a few years and am really glad I got to know her. She will be missed by many. Take comfort in knowing she's not in pain and breathing just fine now because she's resting with the Lord. RIP
