

Lori Lea Stimpson

March 28, 1975 - October 13, 2021

Lori Lea Stimpson, 46, passed away Wednesday, October 13, 2021, in Denton, TX. She was born March 28, 1975, in Amarillo, TX, to Marvin Edward Dean and Patricia Annette (Eller) Dean. She married Jason D. Stimpson on December 6, 2004, in Randall County, TX.

Lori was a beautiful person inside and out. She loved her family and friends with all her heart. She also had a soft heart for anyone that needed help. Lori was kind, compassionate, and a good listener. She listened to everyone's problems, worries, and stories.

Lori loved dogs! She loved them so much that she even changed Jason into a dog lover. Bernie, her old dog, was her baby that she "doted on" more than her own kids. She loved animals of any kind but mostly dogs. Lori also loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ with all her heart. Gone but not to be forgotten, Lori's love will remain in the hearts of those she loved, cared for, and touched. Her life and her smile will remind us that it means more to live and love with all your heart than to not.

Lori is survived by her husband, Jason of Aubrey, TX; son, Alex Stimpson of Aubrey, TX; stepsons, Gunnar Vance and Trevor Betzen both of Amarillo, TX; daughter, Emily Stimpson of Aubrey, TX; father-in-law, David Lee Stimpson and wife Loree of Amarillo, TX; mother-in-law, Darena Kay Nelson of Amarillo,

TX; brothers, Doug Dean and Perry Broadie both of Amarillo, TX, and Brett Matthews of Burleson, TX; sisters, Jenifer Dean-Sims and husband Simon of Grand Saline, TX, and Robin Smith of Amarillo, TX; nephew, William Sims; nieces, Katherine Salas and Norah Sims; and dear friend, MaDonna Roberts of Aubrey, TX. .

Lori was preceded in death by her parents, Marvin and Patricia.

“Lori Lea Stimpson was my first friend, confidante, and best mother in the entire world. There's no words to describe how selfless and caring she was to not just her kids, but strangers too. I'm proud to say I'm her daughter, her first baby girl. But more than that I'm proud to say that she my my mother, my first friend.

I will forever miss our long shared hugs and spending the weeks together watching "New Girl", or "Vampire Diaries". Or even our little squabbles, because no relationship doesn't have them. I would anything just to do something with her, even fight. No matter how much time passes I will never forget how she could make me laugh whenever I had a bad day. Or how her hugs could heal almost anything.

I love and miss you mom. Thank you for giving me the best memories a daughter could have.

“ I don't even know where to begin. On August 24, 1992, I walked into a brand new school in Amarillo on the first day of my senior year. As I stood there shaking, I heard the voice of an angel beside me. "Are you Kirsten? I'm Lori. Do you want to sit with me?" (Sister Pat put her up to it, and she didn't want to do it, but I am forever grateful that she did.) After that moment, we were inseparable. The Bobsey Twins. I have NO memories of senior year without Lori. A year after graduation, I ended up marrying the only guy in our senior class. Thomas and Lori had gone to school together since elementary school. They even went to prom together junior year. For the first 6 years of my marriage, Lori and I always joked that Thomas had 2 wives, because we were STILL inseparable. She was there when all of my babies were born, she was the first one there when my dad and my brother both died unexpectedly. I was there when her babies were born. My kids knew her as Aunt Lori. I cannot say anything even close to explaining the love we all have for this beautiful soul. Jeni, Jason, Alex, and Emily...our deepest, most heartfelt love and prayers are with you.

“ Lori is my sister but we didn't meet until just this year. She found me through Ancestry DNA. What a blessing she has been. What a privilege it is to know her if even for a too short time. I love you, sis!

“Lori was my assistant for a couple of years before she was promoted to manager. She was the light of the office with her sweet spirit. I loved how much of a perfection she was and we enjoyed working together! We stayed in contact over the years and catching up on our life events. She always made me want to be a better person because she was always so sweet! Many hugs and prayers for Jason, Alex and Emily!

“For the 7 years that I’ve known Lori, I can tell you that there was never a better friend or more delightful soul in the world. She was the most gracious, kind, compassionate, strong willed, and devoted person I’ve ever known. I’m proud to call her my best friend and I miss her so dearly. She’s in Heaven watching over us all, and I can’t wait to see her again one day. I love you Lori, and I’m happy that you’re my angel ❤️🥹🙏🙏

“I didn’t know Lori as an adult. The Lori I knew was a beautiful sweet little lady. She and her sister always looked like little dolls. Their mother and father were so very proud of them. They were always a delight to be around. We loved them even later in life they were and are beautiful people. Love ❤️ you Lori and you will be so missed. Prayers for your husband and children. Especially prayers for your dear Jeni who will be so lost without you. God bless you all and may He give you comfort and peace. So very sorry for your loss.

“ Lori's smile brightened the world around her. It is hard to release her to the Lord, but this is what we are all created for, to brighten eternity with glorified smiles. Go Lori, glow with the light of God's Divine Love! See you soon.
