

Lucretia Faye Sprabary

July 27, 1960 - August 3, 2023

Lucretia Faye Sprabary of Aubrey, TX passed away on Thursday, August 3, 2023. She was born on July 27, 1960 to Brownie and Wanda (Morgan) Stonecipher in Wolfe City, TX. She was the oldest of four siblings; sister, Tammie Hampton; and brothers, Brownie and James Stonecipher of Denton, TX.

Lucretia grew up in Denton, TX and married her soulmate Terry Sprabary on February 14, 2000. They enjoyed vacationing, camping and just spending time together. She was the very proud mother of two, Chrystal Stanley and Eric Stanley. She also has two wonderful stepchildren, Nathan Sprabary of Pilot Point, TX and Jessica Case of Jasper, AR. She also has nine amazing grandchildren whom she loved immensely.

Lucretia enjoyed spending time with family and friends, all night conversations, gardening, and her fur baby, Sophie.

Lucretia is preceded in death by her parents Brownie and Wanda Stonecipher and sister, Tammie Hampton.

A memorial service will be held Monday, August 7, 2023, at 3:00PM at Slay Memorial Funeral Center in Aubrey, TX.

Online condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com.

Arrangements are under the direction of Bradley Shotts and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

“ Mother, You will forever be missed! You were beautiful inside and out! You were a wonderful woman with a fun soul. Your memory will forever live on. I will honor your memory until I see you again! I will continue to make you proud! All my heart and soul. I wish we had the chance to do all the things we talked about. I wish I would have spent more time enjoying being in your presence. I wish I could of seen the You I see now years ago. I'm sorry it took you dying to finally get the love and attention you desired. I'm glad to no longer see you suffer. It does my heart good to know where you are there is no pain, your body is whole again and you will forever be my guardian angel. Fly as high as those wings will carry you Mom.
