“ Lynda and I met while working on the Alaska Railroad passenger train in the summer of 1986. We were both working for Tour Alaska (eventually Princess Tours). I loved her energy and spirit the first time we met- I mean, how could you not? In the fall of 1987, Lynda found out I was renting a small apartment on my own. Her warm generous heart convinced me to move in with her and her current roomie. Lynda and I were friends for life. We've shared so many adventures together; hiking, mountain biking, skiing, camping, international travel, mixed in with special visits over the years. I loved watching Lynda sing and perform. She will always be the first American Idol and The Voice in my eyes. Lynda was the example of how to live life to the fullest and not take ourselves so seriously. My heartfelt condolences to all of Lynda's family and friends, for as you all know, she lived and breathed for all of you. So to you my sweet dear Lynda, I can't wait to see you in heaven where we can once again throw caution to the wind while experiencing our next adventure together 🎵 🎸 🎵

“ Loved that red jeep of hers. We had such great fun in that jeep. She was always so generous in letting me borrow it.

“ My soul is hurting to hear of Lynda’s passing on to be with our Lord Jesus. Of course, I can imagine that she is singing with the angels. She has such an awesome voice. Lynda is such a wonderful friend. I met her through our parents mutual friendship. Without having actually met me in person, she invited me to come up to Alaska and stay with her. I had such great adventures because of this. Such a beautiful, kind, generous spirit. She will be greatly missed here on Earth, but I am looking forward to seeing her again
