“ My name is Angela R. Boggs. I didn't have the honor of knowing Marvin personally, but we shared something meaningful — the same Texas soil in Pilot Point and the Aubrey area. To live 103 years is no small feat; it's a life that surely carried wisdom, strength, and stories only time can tell. Though strangers by name, we were neighbors in place. May his memory live on in the hearts of those who loved him, and may the community he helped shape remember him well.

“ Rodger, and the rest of the family. I'm so sorry to hear of your Dads passing. I often stopped to talk to him (and listen to him) when he was sitting on the front porch. I hated it when he couldn't ride his bike anymore, there for a while he was even riding past my house! And I always stopped to say hi to your mom when her caregiver was taking her for a walk. He will be missed !

“ You always had stories to tell, cards to play with us, and loved good laughs (and Grandma's cooking 🥰🍰). Bet you're practicing, waiting to take Grandma dancing again. Go in peace Grandpa. Love you.”
