“ Hard to believe it's been a year since Maryann passed. She was larger than life and we always laughed together. So easy to pick at, and so talented. I miss our visits

“ My heart is filled with sadness right now after hearing of Mary Ann’s passing. She was one of my oldest and dearest friends dating back to our childhood days in Sunday school at Capitol St. Methodist Church, and throughout our school and college years growing up in Jackson, MS. Later on I was Maid of Honor for her wedding and then she was my Matron of Honor. I was there when both her boys were born. My husband and I dropped everything to be with her when she lost Aubrey. She was sweet, kind, funny, creative, talented, and just the best friend anybody could ask for. We talked or texted weekly, and I know how proud she was of her family. My heart goes out to Clark and all the children. You all have my deepest sympathy.

Love,
Patricia Ball

Will never forget her being our music teacher and just her beautiful voice and smiling face. She treated us all like we were her own children, such a loss to anyone who she taught at Prosper and to anyone who knew her. Prayers to Clark and all her grandchildren and family.
