

Mary Irene Klufa

February 22, 1959 - October 22, 2021

Mary Irene Klufa, 62, of Collinsville, TX, passed away Friday, October 22, 2021 in McKinney, TX. She was born February 22, 1959 in Ponca City, OK to Benjamin and Angela (Thul) Hein. Mary married Frank Hubbard Klufa on April 20, 1985 in Stillwater, OK.

She was known by family, friends and acquaintances as an unfailing kind, generous, and loving woman. A devout Catholic, she loved singing in the choir and supporting her parish at every opportunity. She was endlessly giving of her time, talents, and treasures to her community. Among her four boys she also counted several "adopted" sons as part of her family. She will be remembered fondly by her grandchildren for her famous squeeze hugs.

Mary is survived by her four sons, Kyle Klufa and wife Jessica of Pflugerville, TX, Matt Klufa of Collinsville, TX, John Klufa and wife Rachael of Little Elm, TX, and William "Bill" Klufa of San Marcos, TX; four grandchildren, Gabriel, Alexander, Catherine, and Daniel; three brothers, William Hein and wife Cil of Oklahoma City, OK, Matthew Hein and wife Kathy of Rio Rancho, NM, and Kirk Hein of Dallas, TX; three sisters, Marge Johnston and husband Dwight of Stillwater, OK, Joyce Montgomery and husband Dennis of Stillwater, OK, and Teresa Smith and husband Eric of Allen, TX.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Benjamin and Angela; husband,

Frank; daughter, Krista Marie Klufa; and brother, Mark Hein.

“ There is a special fondness, I believe, that we have for the people with whom we were young. Mary and I were young together. We were friends in high school. In my mind's eye, 18 year old Mary Hein is smiling and laughing—she had a wonderful laugh and a beautiful smile. It was a privilege to know her and call her my friend.

“ What a wonderful woman of faith and unwavering kindness to all plus devotion to her family. I greatly enjoyed working with her in Parish music ministry for a few years. When I think of a solid Christian, Mary will always come to mind. We will all miss her but have great memories to cherish. Condolences to all her family.
