“ Mary Lou was a joy to all that knew her. Her wit and friendliness was her trademark. Those who cared for her in the last years of her life so admired her grace and determination to maintain a great disposition and never give up. She was loved by all. Her life here is finished, but her inspiration lives on. May she rest now in peace.

“ I remember your mother as being a wonderful lady.

October 28, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Mom, you lived a wonderful happy life, you told me the happiest times in your life were being a "mom". You raised us well, taught us between right and wrong, you told me to live by the golden rule, I have always strived to do that. I will always love you, you are finally out of your misery, RIP, your daughter Colleen.....
