“ To our family she was "Miss Mary". She came in to our lives when my son, John, was an infant. That was 23 years ago. Miss Mary brought an abundance of love, joy, and faith to our home. Our lives would not have been as 'rich' without the blessings of this wonderful woman. She liked our dogs, but had reservations about the cat. Miss Mary you were the best friend God could send to our family. Have fun in heaven. Thanks for the light you brought to our lives. With love...

“ I work for an airline and board passengers onto planes all across America. The last thing I say before I close the door is "say hello to my Grandmother" . It doesn't matter where it is going it brings a smile to their face. I'm going to continue to say that.
