“Mary was kind-hearted and did take in all kinds of people.....including people looking for something to do on Christmas Eve!! HER time with HER family, but NO, I had to but in, of course, with an invitation from Mary! This was shortly after Barbara and Mark had married, say around 1990-1995, so it wasn't as crowded as I'm sure it has become. So, I go, decked out in a matching Christmas top and pants, along with Christmas jewelry. I knew Mary would be "all decked out" and I wanted to be also. I'm not sure if I made it in time for dinner or not, but Mary and Barbara and others would cook all day and serve a feast for anybody who showed up. I made sure I brought my libations!! Everybody was full, happy, tipsy and now it was time for presents! Oh no....I did not bring any!! So, I thank Mary for a lovely evening and she, in her way of saying it, told me to "sit my hiney down!" In the small hope that I would come, she had bought me a gift too!

Thank you Mary for your Gift of love and friendship for over thirty (30) years!
