“ I am thankful for having Mary Ellen as a Sister-In-Law since 1955. My deceased husband and I loved her with all of our hearts. She was a fantastic person who loved her Family, Friends, neighbors, and most important, Her Lord, who she was faithful and served in many different ways in her lifetime. It is with a grateful heart that I can celebrate her life and have so many fond memories of her. Mary

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Mary's passing. I have always held a fondness for "my twin" as we referred to each other. My youngest daughter, Brooke Ellen, also shares her namesake. I have such wonderful memories of the Waddell family reunions. They were such a long time ago, but are still vivid in my memory. I will not be able to attend the service tomorrow, but take comfort in knowing that my favorite great-aunt Mary is in God's loving arms. I will be thinking of you and your family as you lay her body to rest. All our love, Greg, Sandra, Ashley and Brooke Ellen Terry
