

Max Duane Brown

November 19, 1930 - February 25, 2023

Max Duane Brown passed away Saturday, February 25, 2023, in McKinney, Tx. He was born November 19, 1930, in Anaconda, Montana to Blanche (Faye) and William Brown.

Max was a wonderful, happy person. He enjoyed square dancing, gardening and taking bus rides in downtown Portland to visit various events. He loved ocean cruising with his wife, Mindy and best friends, Robert and Sandy Deanda. Max camped with Bob and Sandy when most sane people stayed at home because of inclement weather. His 75th Birthday present was a fun whitewater raft ride on the Deschutes River in Oregon. The full boatload took copies of his picture, which stood on display at the shop.

Max proudly served in the Korean War where he lost his hearing. Interment will be at Dallas Veterans National Cemetery at a later date. Upon release from the military, he went to college in Chicago and later joined NACA/NASA at Dryden Research in Rosamond, California.

He married Nancy who succumbed to cancer before marrying Malinda Dell who stood by his side for 20 happy years. He has 3 children and many grandchildren and great grandchildren.
