“ Straight talking, incredibly smart and great fun to be around - Drew was a lovely guy and a loyal friend. We worked together at two firms and I don't know a single person who didn't enjoy working with him.

I'm going to miss you Drew my friend...

“ I remember when Drew sold that Dodge pickup when we lived in Lubbock. Drew was so damn honest the dude who bought it actually came back and gave Drew additional money. A testament to the people of West Texas and Drew's Midas Touch :)

“ Drew let me witness his strength in his battle and showed his perseverance in the journey and in all things he did. His family was everything to him and he made sure that they were well taken care of. He and I shared the love of music and the last song we listened to together was "Wish You Were Here" by Pink Floyd.

Drew- You are now and always will be truly missed by all of us! RIP Drew!!!

“ Our world has just lost another great, shining light. Drew was an amazing husband, father and friend. He was truly "a brother from another mother" to me. Love and condolences to Angie, Xandra and all in his family. While he's gone to join our Heavenly Father, he'll ALWAYS be alive in our hearts. Godspeed my friend.

“ Drew was a great husband, father, friend, and patriot. He took his work very seriously but never himself. He always saw the good in people if there was any there and he was always able to find the humor in things if there was any there to see. He was our friend and we will miss him dearly.

If it was not for Drew, I would not have had the future that he provided for me nor the ability to know and enjoy his and Angie's friendship. It has been many years but the debt of gratitude will live on for the rest of my life.
