“ I should add that Michele welcomed my entire family, making us all feel loved and welcome. She made sure she included everyone. We all loved visiting with her and hearing her tell about teaching and her experiences! I also loved swapping recipes with her!

“ Michele was so kind and loving. When I first met her she welcomed me with open arms. I first heard of her from my Mother who loved Michele dearly. And when I got the opportunity to met Michele, I immediately understood why Mother loved her so much. You couldn't help but to love Michele, she was so full of sweetness, kindness, and love for those around her. And made you feel loved immediately. She left everyone better for having known her, and will be missed so very much!

“ When Todd and I started to build a life together, I was spiritually gifted with another family, including two sisters: Cathy, the elder and Michelle, the younger. On my first meeting, Michelle and I clicked. Clearly, she wanted to make me feel welcomed with the new family dynamics. I will always appreciate the level of comfort she established for me. We shared a love of teaching, laughing, animals, learning, storytelling, listening to classic rock 'n roll songs, and enjoying her strawberry Jell-o made with extra pineapple chunks--just for me!! Michelle packed a lifetime into one year....a year full of sisterly love!
