“ Nancy was a wonderful friend. We were in YaYa Reading group together. She was always telling stories of all her travels and adventures in her life. She lived life to the fullest and has inspired me on many occasions to get out there and enjoy life. “ I was a fortunate person to have had Nancy in my life. Nancy started counseling college girls at the University of North Dakota, who did not know how to cope with boys who took advantage of them. One time we were scheduled to have our small group meet at the Memorial Union on campus in one of the meeting rooms. Upon arrival, we found the room we had been assigned was given to another group. We ended up meeting in a broom closet down the hall. Nancy's topic that day was to learn self assertiveness. I can still remember being crowded in the small closet, sitting on the floor and the sensations of the damp mops on my thighs. That was the very beginning of the Women's Center at the University of North Dakota. That was over 40 years ago. Theresa Wald Grand Forks ND

“ We were close friends for many years in Grand Forks. Our children were friends. Nancy and I also worked together as therapists at the Northeast Human Service Center. My love and caring go to Andrew, Sarah and Rachel whom I think of fondly as they were an important part of our family life .

“ My sympathy to Nancy's family. She lived a life full of adventure, always striving for the betterment of the "human condition"; equality, justice, fairness, opportunity. Nancy was fun loving too. Games, stories, all her hobbies & travel adventures! She loved life fully, taking it all in stride. Things & circumstances did not stop her from achieving her goals. She was an inspiration to those around her. GOD BLESS YOU WITH ALL THOSE WONDERFUL MEMORIES, HER DETERMINATION & HER SPIRIT OF ADVENTURE. - Joann A Glover
