“ Nicole was always so good to me. When I first started working in transplant, she was super helpful and was always available to answer my questions. She would help me out at 3am on days that she was off, it didn't matter, she had my back. She was super funny and would always find a way to crack me up. When covid first hit, she made masks for my family and I and drove them down to my house (100 mile round trip) just because we needed masks. I'm grateful that we crossed paths Nicole, and you will be missed. Rest in power FAM.

“ I can never forget when I met Nicole at Parkland. I was so excited to have another Northerner here in Texas with me.

We both understood "real fall and real winter" as only ppl from Ohio and Michigan do. She held me together through a terrible break up, gave my daughter her first gift as newborn (a monkey she still sleeps with at the age of 8), and countless books we still read to our kids.

I have so many memories of this beautiful, selfless girl, but the words so easily escape me because I just want to hold them all so near so they never fade. I don't dare speak them aloud because I'm not sure I would get past the tears.

Nicole your light will continue to shine from the heavens above. I promise to annoy Danny here on earth for you. Until we meet again my sweet friend. We miss you so much already ♥ You're absolutely irreplaceable.

“ Nicole, you will be missed so much. I have thought about you everyday since we found out you are no longer with us. You were such a funny person that stuck out anywhere you went. Thank you for allowing me in your life and considering me your "son." You were so silly all the time pretending to be my work mom and what not. Thank you for all the good times! Thank you for teaching me everything I know about transplantation! I'm so sorry for all of your loved ones as this one hit everyone so hard. You will never be forgotten and will continue to live in our hearts.

“ When my dad passed you suggested I write down everything I wished I could say, good or bad, to write down all the best memories. Here’s what I wish I could tell you, of course it’s only good. When I first met you, you immediately embraced me. That was no small thing. The burn unit was a tight knit family. You embraced me day one no judgements just acceptance. It meant more than you ever knew. When I struggled you believed in me, you were my biggest cheerleader and encouraged me so much, you helped me to find courage to face my fears. When you left Parkland we were all sad but it was inspiring to see you set new goals and pursue the dreams you were excited about. I saw you as strong, smart, wise, funny, and full of kindness, you are all the things a person could want in a friend. Your thoughtfulness stood out. When I hit a postpartum low you showed up and spent time with me and again that meant so much. You were always quick to celebrate your friends joys in life and show comfort during the lows. I will always look back with thankfulness at the fun times we had at work and out on the town with Seethal. I will miss your smile and distinct laugh. You could always make people laugh, another gift. I love you Nicole. I’m so blessed to have known you. I will remember you always. To your family and closest friends, I am so sorry for the heartache and pain you are going through. My heart hurts with you and my thoughts and prayers are with you. Some pics of our good times together.

With love, Jess

“ Nicole thank you for all the times that you planned my extravagant travel arrangements to far places on days I arrived to work on the BACU!! You have no idea how helpful it was to me that you followed the script and played along. No matter what my mode of travel request I had or whosoever jet we needed to ‘borrow’ to get me to my destination, you made it happen!!! You always came through for me especially when times were mentally tough for me! And in a matter of minutes.... my travels were over, then you and I both would finish the 3-11 shift on the (BACU)!!! 😊 So please take your rest as you travel to your destination to be with the Lord!! You’ll always have a special place in my heart!!!

“ My dear niece, Nicole,
What a privilege it was for me to be able to watch you grow from a cute, tiny little baby into the beautiful, intelligent, talented, caring, incredible, lovely woman you became. “ Jerry & Sandra,

I remember the days on Liberal St. fondly. Although it has been 30 years, I still recall a four year old Nicole with those big, brown eyes and that endearing smile like it was yesterday. She was a beautiful, adorable little girl. I remember when she became a "big sister" to Danny and Jamie and just how much joy she took from taking on that role. It has been years since I have seen you, but please know that you and the boys have my heartfelt condolences. As a parent, I can only imagine the unspeakable pain that you are going through and hope that you can find peace knowing you raised such a wonderful, caring, outstanding young woman.

All my best to you both and Danny and Jamie.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Nicole's family. I worked with Nicole at Southwest Transplant Alliance (STA). She was a hard worker and dedicated to organ and tissue donation. We appreciate the gifts she was able to give others during the short time that she was at STA. She will be missed. I have included some pictures of Nicole and her fellow trainees during her second week at STA.
