“ Ollie was a very nice person. You could tell that she loved life and the people around her. She will be missed by all who knew her. Of all the folks I knew who worked for Starbucks, she was the nicest!

“ I am so sorry to hear about Ollie's passing. She has been a faithful patron to our estate sale company since I have worked for them. What a beautiful soul she was. Our hearts are broken for Miles and the family. We loved Ollie and enjoyed what treasures she would find. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I knew Ollie from Starbucks and from estate sales (I used to hold them and go to them occasionally, and we talked about doing her mother's sale). I saw her at an estate sale about 8 months ago and at first didn't recognize her as she was wearing a headscarf. She said she'd been having chemo. I had really hoped she'd pull through it, but they told me today at Krogers that she'd passed away. Heartbreaking news. She always radiated such a positive attitude toward life. I'm sorry for your loss and sorry she didn't have a longer life.

“ I met Ollie Bell Memorial Weekend in Kermit, Tx in 1985..It was my first trip to the Sand Dunes, and I was so nervous because I was meeting my future in-laws. Aubrey my husband was introduced me to everyone, and Ollie just came and gave me a hug and we became good friends we spent the rest of the day and that trip just talking like we had known each other all our lives. She was so kind and fun to be with. We were family. Her father-in-law was my husband's uncle. For the next couple of trips I looked forward to seeing her and catching up. I really missed her when she stopped coming. But I know Life happens and life goes on. I lived in Arizona and Ollie was in Texas. I'm so sad that my Heart hurts that she passed away and I send my Deepest Condolences to her husband and Amy and know she touch my life...Rest In Peace Ollie Bell, until I see you again..

“ Ollie was hands down one of the sweetest people I ever had the blessing of meeting. She was feisty when she needed to be, but never in a mean-spirited way. We shared a love of animals, including her crazy, noisy goose! Ollie had a big heart that overflowed with love and I have such wonderful memories of her. Our thoughts and prayers are with Miles, Amy and the rest of her family. May God bless each of you and give you peace.

“ Ollie Bell Sheeder was one of the best friends that I have ever had. Ollie was so wonderful and kind and so true and I will miss her so very much. Ollie will always hold a place in my heart. I love you Ollie and will look for you when it is my turn to go. My only regret is that if I had known that the last time I saw you, would be the last time that I would see you, I would have hugged you a little tighter, told you I loved you a little louder, and stayed by your side a little longer. My mind knows that your are gone, but my heart will never accept it. I love you So much!!!! Rest in peace my dear friend. ❤️

“ Ollie Bell Im not very good at words, I never accomplished being in front of so many and opening my heart to everyone, but I want everyone to know how we connected we were. We went so long without seeing or talking to each other, I am heartbroken and happy at the same time I got to share some conversations with you before you left us., It is terrible with all of the social nedia networks that we didnt get back together sooner . God be with you, I love you. I will always remember that beautiful long hair! Goodbye dear friend...❤️
