

Pamela Mary Ingram

April 11, 1970 - May 19, 2021

Pamela Mary Ingram, of Little Elm, TX, passed away Wednesday, May 19, 2021. Pamela was born April 11, 1970 in Toledo, OH to Frederick Samuel Ingram and Diane Elaine Wadleigh.

Pamela grew up in Germantown, NY and lived in Minnesota before moving to her heart's favorite place, Texas. Pam was a horse lover, a proud Texan, and an amazing friend. She was happiest when her feet were in stirrups or sand.

She worked as a corporate consultant focused on strategy and change management. Pam spent her life proving anyone wrong who doubted her capabilities and bringing out the best in those around her. She believed in the limitless potential of people.

Pam is survived by her mother, Diane of Buffalo, NY; her siblings; nephew, Lucas of Akron, NY; her dearest friends; and her award-winning show horse, Cowboy.

Online condolences may be shared at ww.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com

Arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

Tribute Wall

ML

“ Aweeee, I'm so sorry to Pam's family & friends...I met her at a tack swap years back & ended up having her on one of my flights, (I'm a flight attendant) & then seeing her at some Minnesota horse shows...I hadn't realized that she had passed..😭🙏😭 I'm very sorry! Thoughts and prayers...😭

Michele Leqve - January 13, 2022 at 02:06 PM

TE

“ I still think oh I need to call Pam.
She kept many people going, from being a cheerleader to just telling you pick yourself up and get going. She was a fighter, best friend, sister etc.

I know she will miss Cowboy but she would say celebrate my life don't focus on my death.

Tennille (Pam helped me do videos for Lily's Pad Rescue)

Tennille - June 04, 2021 at 09:50 AM

Charlene Waddell

“ Today I am missing you more than ever... Thank you Pam for being in my life! I loved how you and I could pick up where we left off. My friendship with you was so easy and rewarding. I loved your sassy, edgy, not afraid to tell it like it is, world. You inspired me to do things that I never thought possible. I watched you grow and fall in love with horses. I watched you accomplish things most people would of never attempted. Job well done my friend....Until we meet again my friend. Rest in Peace. Love you, Charlene

Charlene Waddell - June 04, 2021 at 08:56 AM

LM

“ Dear Ingram Family,

I send my heartfelt condolences to you all. While Pam and I grew apart after high school, I will always have fond memories of our trips to the mall, hanging out poolside, free aerobics classes (followed by Chinese food from the restaurant next door), and our "bike rides" to Clermont (always assisted by a ride home from the parent with the car big enough to hold our bikes)! In fact, I still have the teddy bear named "Wilbur" that she gave me for my birthday so many years ago. Rest in peace, Pam. You were too young to be called home but may you be free of your challenges and revel in the rainbows that you always loved.

Sincerely,

Lynn (Rivenburg) Magryta

Lynn Magryta - May 30, 2021 at 01:41 PM