“ Pat and I worked together at PPISD and we were friends instantly. She always had a smile and something wise to say. I enjoyed making her laugh and riling her up about anything I could. Pat loved making music with her friends and I so enjoyed listening and watching her play. You could see the joy it brought her which projected to her audience. Made everyone smile! You will be truly missed my friend. Thoughts and prayers for the family. Heaven received a musical, happy star. Love ya!

We all have missed her voice this past year but she never lost her humor! Pat now is at her Eternal home and has her perfect body! That makes me happy! RIP Pat until we see you again!
