“ Judy, Don and Rhonda's Children, although no words can help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are in my thoughts and prayers every day. My heart goes out to all of you at this difficult time. I am so glad I had the chance to talk to Rhonda after many years, what a beautiful and smart young woman that was loved by so many. RIP Rhonda Holmes

“Where do I even begin...for there are no words to express how devastating the loss of Rhonda is. Rhonda and I were best friends in junior high at Haworth (Okla) until she moved away (we were classmates & friends from 1st grade, but I didn't get lucky enough to have her as my "best friend" until junior high). I spent many a night with Rhonda and Judy. Played many, many basketball games with Rhonda, (and I might add, we were darn good!). I was heartbroken when she moved to Texas, as I'm sure our whole class was, Rhonda had no enemies. And although, we didn't keep in touch that much over the years as we got older, she remained in my heart and mind, as she still does. For you see, she was one of those special friends that you can never forget, and I haven't. She was kind and loving and giving...the epitome of what a "friend" is. I love her still today as I did when we were beating everybody at basketball. Judy, I love you and can't even imagine the pain you're going through. To Rhonda's beautiful kids, although I never met you in person, pictures speak a thousand words...and there is no doubt that your mama loved you like nothing else. And one day, you'll get to see how good your mama is at basketball when we play again on that golden court in heaven. But until then, do as your mama would want you to do. That's what I do...when I'm sad, or feeling lost, or ever in doubt, I just ask myself..."what would mama want me to do?"

“Deeply saddened for this tragedy...I feel very lucky to have known Rhonda. In school she was a few grades ahead of me but I admired her for she had an infectious smile and glow about her. Cherish each of your memories as I know you will during this very difficult time. I pray that they will give each of her children and family members comfort until you meet again.

“ There just aren't the right words that can express my sorrow. Rhonda was kind and supportive when I was in need, helping me through a rough spot in my life. From our conversations I know that she adored her grandchildren, and was so proud of her children's accomplishments. Know that so many of us loved Rhonda, and we will help you in any way. Be blessed.

“ My deepest sympathies to Rhonda's entire family. It was my privilege to have known Rhonda for many years, first when we worked together at Moore Business Forms, later on a project at UNT and most recently when I transferred to the same department she worked in. Her smile and laughter were both infectious and amazing, but her eyes lit up when she talked about her children and grandchildren. Blake, Victoria, and Grant she has so proud of you and loved you very much, I am so very sorry for your loss. She was one of the most caring and compassionate people I knew and made an impact on everyone she met. Not only was she respected and valued, she was a beloved friend to many of her co-workers. She will be greatly missed.

“ Today your grief is extreme and there are no words that can bring comfort. I am certain the world feels to be spinning out of control for your family. The words people are writing and saying sound foreign, there will be a day that each of you will love and cherish the heartfelt words and memories we all share. Until then Blake, Grant, Victoria, Judy and Mr. Smith, Danny, and family..... Rhonda touched my life in a very positive way as she did so many. I had the privilege of being her hairstylist for several years as well as some of you from time to time. Rhonda was a lady of greatness. I loved her honesty, integrity, her love of family, her humor, graciousness, kindness, spunkiness. She was a woman of character, one to be respected for being her own person. And one with the most gorgeous hair. Victoria, you have her hair! Years have passed since I last saw her, as I looked at pictures I was amazed... She looked as she did back when I was doing her hair. She is an ageless beauty. One of the most beautiful people I know. I enjoyed watching you kids grow up playing sports and sitting around all of you at football games. Rhonda will be deeply missed but we will see her through each of you. You are all her legacy as she watches from Heaven. There are and will continue to be many prayers for each of you today and the days to come. Blessings of love, peace and comfort.

“ To Blake, Grant & Victoria: Treasure all the great memories you spent with your mother. Never let them go. You all grew up with my children and you are all in our thoughts and prayers. I lost my mother over a year ago. The loss of a mother is a great loss. But please turn to your Heavenly Father for comfort. Only Christ can bring you all healing, comfort, peace and the most important is love. Hold on to the great memories until you see your sweet mother again. Love In Christ, Linda Garriott
