“ Rickey Loftice was like a second or third cousin to me. I was shocked to hear about the news of his death. He's in a great place now, but for the living, you could say, itd very tragic. I probably won't be far behind. Rest in Peace Rickey

“ Rick, we didn't meet until later on, you know, you hung with the Celina Loftice's and I was brought up with the Melissa Loftice's. It didn't matter. We knew we were family right away. You made such an impact on me and my whole family's life. We all looked forward to your next joke or quip on Facebook and of course, your Miss Hollin Time. I know my whole family will miss you. You could make us laugh when we were down. Not only did God break the mold when he made you, he sure did bless you with so many people who loved and will always love you. Thank you for blessing our hearts with your love. I will think of you often. Always with a smile. I'll always love you.
