“ My family loved Robert. We went on many vacations together to Branson. Robert was more fun than some of the shows there! He could never tell a joke right, and when he messed up, it was always "John Brown" this and that. All of these things and more, are what made him the guy he was!! Always ready to help if you needed it. We all loved and will miss him dearly! God Bless his family, and know he is at peace.

“ I missed Robert when he was moved to Countryside, missed playing dominoes with him. He sat next to me on the homecoming float one year and everyone we passed waved and said hello to him, he will be greatly missed.

“ Robert was a wonderful, hard-working man who I will always remember from Stephens Grocery Store--he could usually be found around the fresh fruit and vegetables (keeping everything looking perfect!). In recent years, he was a very good friend to my mother whenever she needed a helping hand. He and Jeanette would never fail to be there for Mom anytime she needed them. I still have a wonderful wooden cross that Robert made by hand--he was so good at so many things and fought so hard for so long against many hard challenges that life threw his way. Heaven has certainly gained another angel--my prayers are with all the family.
