“ Going to miss my "Old Grump" Bob. He was a true friend who never complained and always had a sweet spirit about him. Helped me in so many ways to know what it means to have "peace" even in through tough times.

“ Bob was always a wonderful person to sit and have a conversation with on any day. He never complained about how he felt when I visited him in rehab. I loved him and will continue to think fondly of him as he spends time with the Lord. Just know Mollie that I love you and will be praying for you. Becky Johnson

Mollie, it was such an honor to get to meet Bob. He was a true gentleman and very kind. Although I have not known you very long, the instant I met you I felt the beauty of your heart glowing through to me, especially when you talked about your husband. I hope the realization of God's love, as well as Bob being in his eternal home now, help ease your aching heart.
