

Robert Fred Pedigo

May 23, 1928 - May 23, 2014

Robert Fred "Bob" Pedigo, age 86, of Pilot Point, passed away Friday, May 23, 2014 at Denton Regional Medical Center. Mr. Pedigo was born to Zolly Jeff and Clara Francis Pedigo on January 20, 1928 in Pilot Point. He was a farmer, served in the US Navy as Navy Corpsman, and held a degree of American Farmer from Future Farmers of America. Mr. Pedigo helped lead a volunteer clean-up of the historic Skinner Cemetery, and was Post Commander of American Legion Post 550 for 24 years. His biggest accomplishment was the development and belief he had in the microbial product he originally called "Super Bio" that is now distributed all over the world through Agricen. He was proud of his accomplishments and impacted the lives of many. His lifelong goal was to help people and would always lend a hand. Bob had a heartwarming smile that could brighten a gloomy day and the can-do attitude everyone desires. Visitation for Bob will be Tuesday, May 27, 2014 at the First United Methodist Church in Pilot Point from 2:00-3:00pm with a funeral service following at 3:00 pm. The Rev. Luther Slay will officiate and burial will take place at Pilot Point Community Cemetery. Survivors include his son Bart Pedigo and Sabrina Rushing of Pilot Point; daughter, Donna and husband Kevin Fredrickson of Farmington, NM; grandchildren, Caden Fredrickson and Jace Pedigo. He is preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, J.L., Ray, and Willis Pedigo; two sisters, Cora Mae Crawford and Lota Clark. On-line condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com Services are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay

Memorial Funeral Center, Pilot Point.
