

Robin Bristow-Void

February 2, 1964 - August 7, 2020

Robin Bristow-Void February 2, 1964 – August 7, 2020 Robin was truly a force of nature to anyone who knew her. She was strong, giving, optimistic and loved life! She was not afraid to love deeply nor was she afraid to fight diligently her several illnesses. She lived life on her own terms. God and her family were her highest loves and priorities. She adored her grandchildren Amina, Dionne, and Amethyst. Her beautiful children Raven, Sparrow, Hawk and Dove were with her at home at her homecoming. She is now with her loving son Jay. “Mother Bird” loved among other activities mentoring, helping people change their lives, water (especially Florida beaches), the mountains of West Virginia, rapping, dancing, music, making people laugh (she was a comedienne), Windstar Casino, travel, slow pitch softball, bowling and coaching basketball. Robin was a smart businesswoman. She loved numbers and worked as an accountant. Robin’s giving nature was shown when she started many non-profits to benefit others. She had said if anything was to be done for her in the end (and for her that was not even necessary) she insisted that her life be celebrated with music, dancing, bright colors, and laughter. That is how we will celebrate her, and you should too. Robin never met a stranger. She will be missed by family, friends who became family and all who knew her. Due to COVID-19 and limited space a private family celebration will be held. Your understanding is appreciated. Please celebrate Robin in your own fashion but make it fun! “ I will never forget the first time I met Robin, she was so upbeat and happy. She came to my 65th Surprise Birthday party and we danced and cut up like teenagers She had a very catching smile and had a new lease on life that others could not understand She was always speaking about Jesus Christ and sharing her love for the Lord. You will be missed

“ Heaven gained a beautiful angel! Robin loved the Lord Jesus with all her heart and I know she is singing now in his presence and no longer in pain! Robin will be greatly missed by family and friends. We take comfort knowing you are in a better place and watching over all those you love. May the peace of the Lord be with the family
