

Rogelia Martinez De Romero

September 4, 1940 - April 21, 2024

Rogelia Martinez De Romero, 83, of Aubrey, TX, passed away Sunday, April 21, 2024 in Aubrey, TX. Rogelia was born September 4, 1940 in Venezuela to Adolfo Martinez and Rosaura Martinez. Rogelia was married to Arquimedes Romero.

She was an extraordinarily strong woman, with a powerful character that radiated determination in every step she took. Her heart was as big as her strength, filled with unwavering love that she generously shared with everyone around her. Despite the pains and challenges that life presented her, she never lost her faith in tomorrow or her ability to find the light in the darkness.

Her path was marked by difficult moments, but each obstacle strengthened her spirit and turned her into a living example of resilience. She taught us, by her example, that life is a continuous journey, that pain is temporary and that there is always a new dawn waiting after every dark night.

Her passion for dancing was an expression of her joy of life. In every movement, she transmitted a contagious energy that illuminated any space in which she found herself. And her greatest joy resided in her family, whom she loved deeply and for whom she was capable of any sacrifice. Her ability to please her loved ones with loving gestures was her way of showing them how much they meant to her and how she found happiness in their happiness.

She not only lived, but she left an indelible mark on every heart she touched. Her legacy lives on in the lessons of strength, love, and gratitude that she left us, always reminding us that life is a precious gift worth living with courage and passion.

Rogelia is survived by her daughter, Mileidy Romero Martinez and husband David Marble; two grandsons, Juan Marmol and William Romero; and two granddaughters, Claudia Marmol and Wendy Romero.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Adolfo and Rosaura; husband, Arquimedes; and two sons, William and Wirmer Romero.
