“ We remember all the times he beat his first family. The second family forgot to mention my brother and sister. I have know clue why they would mention me and my wife.

“ I worked with Ron at Durham Transportation and he was always very kind and quiet. I got to know him and his son, Jeremy. We all became friends, and they also befriended my husband. I'm sad to hear of his passing and I will forever remember what a kind and gentle soul he was to me.

Such a great man; who was humble, caring and loving! Definitely a fighter, as he fought for as long as he could. You will truly be missed physically but you will live long in our hearts!
