“ To all the Uptergroves-I have so many memories of Roy Lee and all of you! Roy Lee was always so sweet and so devoted to his family. I'm sure there were times he wanted to bop me over the head! He was such a inspiration and walked the walk!My thoughts and prayers are with you. Dianne McCloy Bucy

“ We were happy to assist at Roy Lee's grave side service. Roy Lee was one of God's silent servants, he did many good things without advertising it. He is a great example of faith to those who know him.

“ Roy Lee rebuilt my mama's and daddy's house when I was about 6 -- nicknamed me "Katina Kat" and it stuck for all those years (saw him at a Spearman reunion in 2010 and that's what he called me). He worked on our house again a few years later, worked on my grandma's house and built or rebuilt most of the McCloy houses in the Panhandle! We saw them at Morse Baptist many times, played with the kids growing up, and always felt the Uptergroves were like family. Our prayers are with you all.
