“ Ryan was a really great person. I worked with him at TWU Library. He was always positive and had a good sense of humor about things, even when I called him for help with a computer virus or that there was yet another problem with our printer system. I didn't know him all that well, but when I told him about local shows I was doing, he showed up to the very next one, which meant a lot to me. He was really passionate about his interests and supportive of everyone else's. At his service, I got to hear stories about how he was amazingly kind and supportive to so many people in lots of different ways. I'm very sorry for your loss. He'll be missed.

“ I worked with Ryan at the TWU library. We worked Saturdays together, and he often made slow days more bearable by cracking corny jokes and talking to me about video games. He was an incredibly kind, intelligent guy. I am so sorry for your loss.
