“ It seems like it was just yesterday when we were praying together. I can still see your tears when we were sharing a Bible study together and you said, “you just told me my entire life.” You rededicated your heart to Jesus Christ as we prayed.

“ We met Scott when we moved to Providence Village, he greeted us and always smiling. He was truly a good artist, I had the privilege of seeing some of his artwork. My husband and he enjoyed talking with each other and praying with each other. If we ever needed help with anything he was there to help. We still have the bunk bed set up that he put together for us. Scott introduced us to the church he was attended and it is now Rock Creek, we remember him being there early and staying late to set up and takedown chairs and equipment. Scott was very kind to everyone that come in contact with him. We know he is a believer and he is with our Lord and Savior. We were honored and blessed to know him as a neighbor and friend. “ I remember Scott Moore and it's been years since I've seen him, and I'm sad to hear the news. Prayers for his family and his children, and his loved ones near and far. R.I.H Scott.

“ I can't believe you are gone! Just doesn't seem real! This is such an old picture but it was when I had came in from Tennessee once and always came to visit. We had been in the yard all day and you had been mowing the yard and we were cooking. Of course little man had a crush on Israel.. hahah! I'm so sorry for all of us here that you were taken from us, but my heart is at peace knowing you are in heaven! I love you!

“ So many good memories of Scott. Our family times were so special. He was always a gentleman even at a young age. I can remember my Amy and Scott having a very special first date at our little local church. Keeping you all in our prayers .
