“ Aunt Sharon was always so beautiful, and so kind! I loved going to her house when I was a kid. What I remember most is her playing the piano, and also seeing her paintings, and thinking how talented she was! Maybe she is why I wanted to learn to play the piano! A true believer, she was, and I am so glad she has a new body and is smiling in Heaven today!

“ Thank you Lord Jesus for blessing all that knew Sharon. She was my sister-in-law, married to my brother Jerry Sr. I can remember how kind and beautiful she always was to everyone she met. Her heart was always in the right place and she was a true believer in Christ. Her talents were endless and she was a blessing to anyone that knew her. My prayers go out to her beautiful family and to all those that had the great opportunity to know and Love her.

“ I am so thankful for and was so blessed to have Sharon as my Aunt. My earliest memories that I have of Aunt Sharon was of her making cookies for us and always being so kind and gracious. She didn't really say a whole lot but I can remember her always having that pleasant look on her face and listening to what was going on around her. I still remember staying with her and my Uncle Gerald a few times while growing up and riding our bikes back to their house after playing and she would have fresh homemade cookies for us. I don't ever remember her complaining about anything and just having that calm, quiet, and pleasant attitude. I was so blessed by having Sharon as an Aunt and now Heaven gained a true Saint and follower of Jesus. I'm so thankful to be her nephew and for the positive impact and encouragement that she was to me and my family. Kim and Jerry, our hearts are with you during this time. We love you and are here for you.
