“ Dear Derek and Family, Your hearts are pained in a most unbearable way. Stephanie's passing is a huge loss to all who were fortunate to know her. We lift you up in prayer, and believe God in his infinite goodness and mercy will provide some peace and comfort. Being a wife, raising two children, and starting as first year law student is no easy task. Stephanie stepped up to the challenge with energy, optimism, and determination. Each life she touched during her time here on earth certainly was enriched by her caring spirit, genuine concern for others, and engaging smile. She was fun to talk to and a joy to be around. Stephanie dearly loved Braxton and Riley. She was excited about Braxton's Batman birthday party, his starting school, and having painted his bedroom the "perfect" color blue. She talked of Riley's sweetness and of her being an easy baby. She would grin when saying how different it is to buy little girl stuff. You could tell she was one proud mom from the array of pictures she had of Braxton and Riley on her computer wallpaper page. When asked, she was eager to tell what the occasion was for the picture, or what brought about a particular pose or expression. Her memory will linger long. She left her mark. Rest in peace dear gentle soul.

“ I am shocked and saddened by the sudden and unexpected loss of this fine lady. Stephanie worked for my law firm for three and a half years. She was very bright and organized handling the work of three legal assistants by herself. Great work ethic and terrific person. She had the potential of becoming a fine attorney and I am sorry the world will not benefit from her services. The Lord had other plans. Stephanie will be missed.
