

Steven Conn

September 14, 1967 - September 29, 2021

Dennis Steven Conn, 54, of Pilot Point, TX, passed away Wednesday, September 29, 2021 in Frisco, TX. Steven was born September 14, 1967 in Okinawa, Japan to Dennis Conn and Hideko Hayaski. Dennis married Melissa Conn on April 22, 2000, in Elkhart, TX.

Steven was raised in Elkhart where he graduated in 1985. Steven attended Texas Wesleyan University earning an Associate's degree. He and Missy moved to Pilot Point, TX in 2004 where they attended Midway Church and made many friends. Steven worked for Upper Trinity Water for the last five years as a Water Specialist.

Steven was a family man who invested his whole heart into spending time with them. Whether he was playing basketball, attending baseball games, or showing their pigs at the stock shows he made a point of making happy memories that he will leave with his family. Steven had a handshake or a smile for his friends and was always willing to lend a helping hand. He was a man of many talents but his most memorable being how proud he was of his children and how he loved Missy. Despite Steven's short time on earth, he was deeply loved and brought joy to those around him. He will be remembered fondly by those who knew and loved him, and they will never forget his smile.

“ I worked with Steven and Roy at the dealership in the early 90's. Steven, Roy, and I were the young bucks back then and often spend time together laughing and cutting up when things were slow. It was like our own little fraternity. I got to enjoy his joy in life through social media, but regret not trying to get a mini reunion together all these years. Steven will be dearly missed. My heart is broken for the family and sending Prayers up for his family.

“ Our son Tony was born 3 days before Steven in the same army hospital and his mother Hideko was recovering 2 beds away from my wife. The beds were separated with curtains and my wife was shocked to hear her best friends voice close by. Even stranger was when we were stationed Ft. Hood & found that Dennis and Hideko were living in Elkhart not too far from us so we paid them a surprise visit.

Tony did get to meet and chum around some with Steven but not too often since we lived in different parts of the country. Nevertheless , Hideko and Shige remain close friends to this day and we were shocked and saddened to hear of Steven's death. Our prayers go out to Dennis,Hideko, and Steven's family.

“ What a great man Steven has always been. We grew up in a small community and were a tight group of friends. As a husband and a daddy you could see the love and pride he has for his family. God bless you all. Will lift you up in prayers in the months to come.

“ This was a moment I had to stop an think: I thought of his smile an he was a direct person as a ex-coworker, he was my boss. You did your job, and left with a smile every day from what I remembered. You were only 3 years older than me, man I am wondering. Thanks, for being in my life even it was just passing by, you are a good guy...

“ Once , Steven, David London, Robert Brown and I (Roy) were riding three wheelers and we came across a huge tree with thick vines gathered at the bottom going up to the tree top, we decided to climb up and about half way up we began to tire when Steven came up on a huge knot in his vine, he pulled himself up onto it and as he was saying "Y'all need one of these theeeeeese!" the knot broke, his expression was priceless, and down he went head first getting entangled where the vines gathered, stuck upside down. We rushed down to get him out and we couldn't get leverage and he couldn't get hold of anything to pull up, David with a big grin said as he pulled out his pocket knife "I'll cut you out!" His knife was about two inches long and the vines about eight inches thick! We all busted out laughing and eventually got him out.
