“ Taylor and I worked together at Nelson elementary. She was a light. She was a loyal friend. She was a talented educator. I went to Taylor for advice, accessories, and laughs. I would constantly tell her how she was living out my dream life and she needed to share with us less fortunate... aka me. 😭 Before Daisy, Rosie was her everything. I imagine them cuddling together now in heaven.

“Taylor patiently drove all over North Texas trying to find me the perfect house. She laughed endlessly over my unintentional preference of mint green. I loved hearing stories about her husband and her dog. Her light was so incredibly bright and I'm sorry for the unimaginable loss that this must be for all of you.”

“ I am absolutely heartbroken over the loss of Taylor. She was so kind and loving to everyone she met. When we met we were instant friends. She had the biggest heart for Jesus and I am so thankful for the time I got with her. We loved talking about Books and Taylor Swift. My life has been changed by having her in it. My thoughts are with her husband and family.

“ Taylor was an amazing person. She was always so happy and so motivational. She was my roommate at IUP in 2017 and I couldn't have asked for a better person to live with. She was always there for me and cracking jokes when I needed it most. A special light taken from us too soon. Taylor will forever be missed and loved.💜

“ I am so deeply saddened to hear of Taylor’s passing. She was one of my dearest friends during our days at IUP, and we completed our student teaching placements at the same elementary school. We did countless projects, papers, and other assignments together as we supported each other and our group of friends through college. She was one of the most hard working, kind, and energetic people I’ve ever met. I know that mine and everyone else whose lives she touched are better because she was in it. The world won’t be the same without her.
