“ I knew Terry back in Griffith. He was a lot of fun, and served as a great protector when you needed some muscle. :)
His grilling and wildlife pictures on FB always showed how happy he was. His gratitude for the little things came across as a prayer. Love and Light to his family. I'll miss you, Terry.

“ Hi Kenneth Copelin here i knew Terry as a hard working friend at his job Legacy windows as I had the privilege to getting to know him through his work as I am one of his drivers for the company that I worked for Salem carriers I would always get there early just so I could chat with him in the wee hours of the morning as I knew he was a early riser but the most thing I remember with Terry as a truck driver over the years of working with him i went through 2 Bassett hound dogs that Terry enjoyed meeting every time I came to the warehouse to pick up my load my first Bassett hound was named Roscoe and it was a joy seeing Terry interact with Roscoe as I could tell he was a true animal lover well Roscoe was taken from me by my neighbor and Terry was upset about it as I was so I decided to get another riding companion named hank and the one thing I remembered the most was when hank was a puppy Terry always paraded him around the office as his own dog in which hank loved him always barking when we showed up at the office knowing that he was going to see his friend Terry and Terry always loved seeing him.

“ Terry, was the rock to Tammy. He was a loving husband, spoiled her, and gave her a hard time just because. He was a loving father to Karry Jo and Joshua, a great grand father to all of the girls, and other grandchildren. He was playful, energetic and most of all just one big teddy bear. Terry you will be missed by all, and I know I'm not the only one that will miss seeing the deer, the beauty of nature, and most of all the food that you cooked and teased all of us with. Rest Easy my dear, and know that everyone will be awaiting your signs as we know you will be sending them. Hugs to the family, and prayers for all that have been touch with his passing. ”
