“ Hard to believe that it's been 2 years. It still doesn't seem real. I find myself oftentimes wanting to call or text you, & then I remember. I am grateful for the last voicemail you left me, & for the memories I have of the time we spent together. I will never forget you. ❤️ Lifting the Casey Family in prayer at this time. May God grant us all peace & comfort.

“ Today we say our final goodbye to a great police officer, a great man, a great friend and most of all a great father. There is no right words as you have left this world all too soon! I know you are in heaven catching a big fish, telling stories with all your passion and watching over all of the people you had so much passion for. Our prayers are with your family as the heal from this great loss. You fought the good fight and have earned your eternal rest. Godspeed Tim Casey!

“ Tim Casey was an example to all who knew him. He was an example to his son of how to be a good man and amazing father. He was an example to Barbara and Tom Casey of how great parents raised a wonderful son. He was an example to his sister, brother-in-law and nephews of how to love your family. He was an example to his friends of how to be a loyal and fun loving friend. He was an example to all that knew him of how to battle an invisible enemy with great dignity. He is now walking tall and proud among the Angels and will be remembered in the hearts of those that love him.

“Honestly, I don't want to write this entry. It all feels like a bad dream...a cruel joke. I don't want to have to remember Tim. I don't want to share my memories. I want him here, and I am angry. It isn't fair. But, life isn't fair. He is gone. And so I write...Some men are remembered for how much money they made, what kind of car they drove, their profession, or other such trivial things...meaningless standards imposed by our culture as to what defines a person's worth. But truly GREAT men are remembered for how they made OTHERS feel. They aren't remembered for who THEY loved, but for who loved THEM. Tim was one of the most (if not THE most) precious people I've ever known. He cared deeply for those close to him. And he was incredibly WELL-LOVED by many! To say he will be immensely missed is a gross understatement. I'm so grateful to have known him & to have loved him. I am blessed & honored to have been loved by him in return. His life was a gift. Though his loss is devastating, I rest in the knowledge that we WILL meet again someday. Perhaps then he can teach me how to tie a proper fly. But for now, I take comfort in knowing he can finally rest in the arms of our Savior. To God be the glory!

“ As his former wife and mother of his child, Lochlain Casey, I extend my sincere condolences to the family. Lochlain and I shared some great times with him over the past nine yeats of Lochlain's life and as recent as January during which we united multiple times to build recent memories for our son.

“ My heart goes out to you, the Casey family, and Tim's loved ones. I have so many wonderful memories of Tim and the times he spent at our house. I just adored him. He invented the concept of full-body contact Pictionary. That was fun. A light went out in my world with his passing.
