“ I had the pleasure of knowing Tommy/T.D./Little Tommy all his life. He was a great friend and Ken and I will truly miss him. The loss of someone dear to us is never easy. I hope and pray all the great memories we have of Tommy will bring some comfort during this difficult time. My deepest sympathy. God bless. Mike Davis

“ Tommy I will so miss everything about you. From the first time I met you and Johnny after buying a car from you 35 years ago. Later working together, spending time together with our families and friends. Loved how you teased me and made me feel so much a part of your tribe. It was a true honor. Mark and I have so many amazing memories. I know you missed Johnnie so and y'all's love was inspiring. There is some solace in knowing you are together again. Rest In Peace dear friend.

“ Jack and I loved Tommy's laugh and all the fun times we had at various parties we attended. I will never forget him teasing me with a drinking cup on my birthday and daring me to take a drink every time he did. I do not remember much about that night at my birthday party but was teased every time there after when we talked. Loved his zest for his job, his life and know how he missed Johnnie these last few months. Thanks for being my brothers best buddy. Rest in peace.

“ The Laman family and Davis family have been like one family for nearly 70 years. I first became friends with Tommy’s dad when we were about 11 years old. I have spent many days with Tommy dove hunting, deer hunting, and just sitting around telling stories (many retold more times than I can remember). The hunting outings were like a family reunion. When we hunted dove we would put them on the grill, along other foods, and enjoy the great food and more importantly each other’s company. Often times a game of 42 would break out where Tommy and I were partners. It was so enjoyable beating our competition, even though we had to watch closely because they would try to cheat. Many times my brother Mike and I went to Tommy’s company office on Saturday just to visit and again tell all those stories. Tommy was one of the most generous people I have ever known. I will really miss him. Rest in peace my friend.
