“ To all of the Whitley's: You all meant a lot to me. I always had an amazing amount of respect for Tommy Joe. I remember the way you three would make fun of him and his Texas accent: Paints (pants), aigs (eggs), etc, and how you called his huge truck with the camper on it "La Bamba". The entire time he would laugh with you. He was a great example for me as a boy and then as a young man. I will cherish all of the memories I have of him and the family.

“ Our thoughts and prayers to the Whitley family. Charles & I always thought a lot of Tommy Joe. He never failed to go out of his way to speak and ask how we were doing. It was easy to see a mirror image of him in his children.
