

Mr. Tony Lynn Miller

December 3, 1973 - April 13, 2026

Tony Lynn Miller, 52, passed away Monday, April 13, 2026, at his home in Collinsville, TX. Tony was born December 3, 1973, in Denton, TX, to Virgil Leon and Brenda Darlene (Sauls) Miller. He married the love of his life, Rebecca Ann (Richardson) Miller on November 6, 2010, in Saint Jo, TX.

Tony found joy in the simple, honest pleasures of life—whether he was out in the woods hunting, casting a line into still waters, or kicking up dust on his four-wheeler. He had a deep love for the outdoors, from rock crawling adventures to quiet moments spent gazing at nature, taking in its beauty and peace.

He was never one to sit still for long. If something had an engine or gears, Tony was likely already working on it. From tractors to just about anything mechanical, he took pride in fixing, building, and figuring things out with his hands. That same passion extended to his life on the land, where caring for cattle and working the family property brought him a deep sense of purpose.

Tony also had a gift for bringing people together through food. Whether he was smoking briskets and Boston butts low and slow or frying up fresh catfish, he made sure no one left hungry—and everyone left smiling. Those gatherings were filled with laughter, stories, and the kind of memories that last a lifetime.

Above all, Tony cherished his family. He loved spending time with his children and playing with his grandkids—never missing a chance to laugh, teach, or simply enjoy being together. Known affectionately as Dad, Pot Pot, and Uncle Bubba, he wore each title with pride and love.

Some of Tony's proudest moments included graduating high school and serving his country in the Marine Corps, buying his first pickup truck, marrying his best friend Becky, and building a life on the family property he held dear. These milestones reflected a life grounded in dedication, hard work, and love.

Tony will be remembered as an honorable, selfless, and attentive man—someone who showed up for others without hesitation, no matter the circumstances. His legacy lives on in the lives he touched, the lessons he shared, and the love he gave so freely.

Tony is preceded in death by his dad and stepmom, Virgil and Therea Miller; mother and stepfather, Brenda and Pete Robinson; grandparents, Frank Austin and Osha B. Miller and Willie D. and Charlcie Margaret Sauls.

Those left behind to treasure his memories are his wife, Becky Miller of Collinsville, TX; brother, Kevin Miller and wife, Flor; nephews, Jayce Miller and Colten Miller; niece, Danielle Miller and wife Heather; children, Douglas Richardson and wife, Lacie, Karissa Renken, Tori Lombard and husband, Hunter, Madonna Kelley and husband, Cody and Jeremy Tilden and Makayla Makae; 12 grandchildren, Haylea Richardson, Haedyn Richardson, Jolie Richardson, Blaze Richardson, Alaynna Richardson, Maverick Lombard, Korbin Wagner, Jayden Kelley, Ashton Kelley, Landyn Witts, Shirley Tilden, and Jeramy Tilden Jr.

The family would like to extend their deepest gratitude to the compassionate team at Concho Hearts Hospice for the exceptional care and comfort they provided to Tony in his final days. Their kindness, dignity, and unwavering support brought peace not only to Tony, but also to all who loved him. We are profoundly thankful for the gentle guidance and heartfelt attention they gave during such a difficult time.

“ Tony was a very special, unique man! In the months I knew him, even on his hardest days, he made sure everyone around him was okay. He would give a smile as big as Texas, the biggest bear hug, and a gentle reminder to have fun and live life to the fullest. He was at peace because he knew where he was headed--and he was quick to tell me that! I shared many laughs, tears, and special visits with Tony and Becky. He often liked to catch me off guard with a sly comment and even a prank or two! My last visit with him Sunday night into Monday morning was one I will forever remember. I will miss our visits. Like I told him on Monday morning, "You just beat me to the finish line--we will see each other again!" Becky--You and the entire family remain in my thoughts and prayers!
