

Ty Haden Trubenbach

January 14, 2006 - April 12, 2019

Ty Haden Trubenbach, 13, of Pilot Point, TX, passed away Friday, April 12, 2019. He was born January 14, 2006 in Lewisville, TX to Trent and Nieva (Cafe) Trubenbach.

Ty was the BIGGEST kid anyone ever met. He loved his family, cows, dog, working out “with his crew,” playing football, hunting, and running track. Ty never met a stranger, for long. He would spread his wings and pull in people, many times without them even knowing they were under his wings. Ty always put himself last when it came to any wants or needs. He always wanted to make everyone smile and would do whatever it took to make it happen. Ty’s heart was always in the right place. He loved this community with all his heart and was a bearcat.

He is survived by his mother Nieva, father Trent, brother and best friend Triston, grandparents: Mike Trubenbach, Karen Grant, Steve & Phyllis Scott, and Lourdes Scott, his uncle Justin Camp and aunt Ellen. He had cousins and other family in Muenster, TX, Tyler, TX, California, and Wisconsin.

A memorial service will be held at 10:00AM, Thursday, April 18, 2019 at Midway Church in Pilot Point, TX with Rev. John Theisen & G. A. Moore officiating. Online condolences may be shared at www.slaymemorialfuneralhome.com. A youth sports fund has been set up at Independent Bank in Pilot Point in memory of Ty.

Arrangements are under the direction of Terri Slay and Slay Memorial Funeral Center.

“ How do I start this .. I miss you soo much ever since you left us everything hasn't been the same school feels empty without you sometimes I even get my self into situations and think what would ty do if he was in this situation. I miss your laugh, your jokes , those bear hugs you would give me and I just miss you . I started working out a month after you passed away just for you , well basically you were my motivation since I know you loved working out and how at times you would even try to invite me to go workout with you. I also joined powerlifting last year during my freshman year. It was kinda hard but I pushed through it for you but the girls powerlifting ended up getting canceled, hopefully this year it won't get canceled. I'm in Training too but sometimes I get sad because your not out there playing ; I miss you lots baby boy .

“ Well TY,It has been almost 1 year since I have seen you. I still think of you everyday and look at your pictures and think of all the fun times we had in your 13 years and 3 months here with us. Your loved dearly son. Not one day goes by I don't think of you or a story from your great adventures. It's so hard to type here and know I wont see you when I get home from work. I cry so much when I do this that is hard to do, but I dont want you to think I have forgot you, even a little. I love you with all my heart. Times are tough but we are making do. Your brother is working super hard. Training every day and studying. He delivered a calf last week! You would have been in the mix for sure. It looks like he liked it and really looks like he will make a great Veterinarian. He is working hard to run track in college but we missed track season due to Coronavirus. But he is training for summer track AAU. He and Mom miss you too. Hope your having fun in heaven. I love you.

“ Trent, Nieva, Triston, Mike, Karen, Justin, Ellen & Ruby,My heart goes out to you. I distinctly remember taking Ty through the American Airlines Flight Museum when he was only 4-5 years old. He was just the cutest little boy, and so fascinated with the various displays. Take care of each other and may you take comfort in knowing that many, many others, who admired Ty, are thinking of you.With Sympathy, Tom “ Trent and Nieva, I heard about your son on Facebook, and I just wanted to let you know I am so sorry for your loss. I am so sorry for the terrible sadness you are no doubt going through. Seeing his pics, he looked like a very happy, good-hearted young man. Reminds me of his Dad that I used to ride the school bus home with when we were in school. Praying yall will feel Jesus holding on tight to you, giving you His strength and comfort to get through these very difficult days. I also pray that all the happy moments you had with Ty would make your heart smile each time you think of and miss him.
