“ My fondest memory with my youngest sister was the night that we went to a Ranger's game in Arlington, Texas. We giggled the night away. I'm grateful 🙏 for the privilege and honor for the time that we had. I loved her so much, and I miss her more then word's could ever express.

“ Mom. There are countless things that were left unsaid between me and you, and yet, even when I was disobedient, you still love me unconditionally, and you will forever be in my heart, and memories...I love you forever, mom...

“ Venus was or is an unique person of extraordinary insight and dedication. We bonded back when she was but a teen, and the love between us only grew stronger with time.

“ I have a long time remembrance of this wonderful woman. We had many conversations, share many thoughts. Her persistence in doing what is right despite circumstance stands out in her favor. No one really knew the intensity of what she endured this lifetime. Even those who knew her best. She is a great asset to the planet and to those who knew her best. She called me Aunt Helen in respect for how she was taught, and her own personal idea of who I AM. Though we do not see her presence on this earth, we are NOT separated by what is called death. We but wait for day when we meet in Love and in Truth. The world is a much better place because women like Venue has graced this planet and left a trail for us to follow. Yet she did not really know her value or worth, whether as a person or as a heavenly gift to all who knew her or even those who did not. I know of no person without personal handicap who was in the hospital more than she. Yet she was always in a better frame of mind, full of hope and cheer. Love you Venus. Congratulations for a JOB WELL DONE.

“You are my Sunshine....” is how I quieted you when you were a newborn, the first song that you heard, and as far as I am aware, when I sang to you the last time I talked to you, it was the last song that you heard before leaving us. 46 years of our a-lot-of-the-times even knowing what the other one was thinking. 46 years of knowing when the other needed something, even when denied. 46 years not always agreeing, but always loving. I am glad/happy/thankful that I said "Yes" to God for you, and sorry that your time to go was/is here. I think your time in South Korea helped me to learn to be without you near and maybe the hard phone calls helps me to know I have to listen well to hear you now, maybe was my "teaching/training" for now and the future. Now it is time to see if I learned. I love you. I miss you. I am happy that you are out of pain, though. I lit a candle as it is as close as on here to Sunshine. Fly high, baby, fly high. "I love you, too."

“Didder, it seems so strange to think of you not being in the world. Your personality was so big that you filled the area around you with energy. I think I am still in shock, but trying to be strong. My heart is shattered for Kevin. I hurt for Adam, Sara,, and Jacob...I miss you. Yes even our bickering as sisters do. Rest well Didder....

“ My Venus, I love you. I miss you. I will carry the burdens that you have finally been able to lay down, and pray to be as uplifted and ennobled by them as you.
