“ Wes and I shared so many adventures in Little Elm. One of these is his love for Karaoke. He had a machine at home where he would practice his old Hank Williams songs. Every Friday and sometimes Saturday i would pick him up and we would cruise over to the Pirates Cove Restaurant or go to Pilot Point where he was always greeted with love from his many friends who shared his passion. Aubrey also had a spot we visited for many months. I will always remember his joy at these gatherings.

“ Uncle Wesley was the kindest and most polite person to everyone, all of the time. But what I know and remember most about Wesley is that he loved Wes Jr. and Stephanie and their children more than anything in the world. Peace be with you Uncle Wesley, and to all who shared your love of the Lord Jesus. Hug Grandmother for me!

“ Mr. Morrow drove our my school bus 30 plus years ago. We were lucky to have him looking out for us as youngsters. May his family find peace and healing.

“ Wesley Morrow Sr. Is better known as Pawpaw to our family. We all called him Pawpaw, even my Mom, when she was alive. He and I would sing Karaoke in his kitchen when I rented his house and he was my neighbor. He love to come over to enjoy the family cookouts too. We loved Pawpaw, and he loved us too. He had no idea the impact on so many people in Little Elm. I'm blessed to have been able to know him. ❤️

Wes was an amazing Christian man who blessed our lives greatly in our time in Little Elm. I admired him so much for his upbeat spirit even though I knew he was going through painful times with that crippling arthritis. He loved being part of our little country band when we were starting up. He was great as an emcee and added a lot of comical stuff and sang a few of his favorites. We've missed not being around Wes in the last few years and will miss not seeing him again..for awhile. Wes was simply a really good man we were blessed to know.

“ I met Wes about 23 years ago. He was my sons first bus driver. Perry was his first stop and would sit on the bus the entire route. After a week Wes came to my home and asked if I would like him to pick Perry up last (on his way back to the school) so Perry's bus ride went from a hour to about 5 minutes. That was my first time meeting Wes and we were very blessed to have him as my kids bus driver and friend.

“ West drove my children to school and not only did they love him, I did too. I knew they were in safe hands with Wes. I know he's in Heaven and although physically absent for this world, he will be remembered fondly by many. RIP Wes. 💙

Wes and I were kids together with Leland his brother and Gerald my brother we pretty well ran Little Elm. Back in those days everybody knew everybody and it was easy for our parents to get the word, Monte (Big-Boy) as they called him would make us toe the line, Grace was not so strict. I have enjoyed reading all the nice comments from his friends, that tells the whole story. RIP my old friend Jim Slater sr.

He and my brother Dan Owens grew up together in Little Elm. They were the same age. So sorry to see that he has passed.

I had an opportunity to serve with Wes during his time on the Little Elm Town Council and for several years in the Little Elm Lions Club. His commitment to our community was complete but what really impressed me was the way he greeted those of us who were new to Little Elm.

Wes was a truly good man who had a tender place in his heart for those who wanted to serve others. He will be missed.
